

Downloading Files from VDI to Local Device

After saving file in the VDI, follow the steps below to download the file to your device.

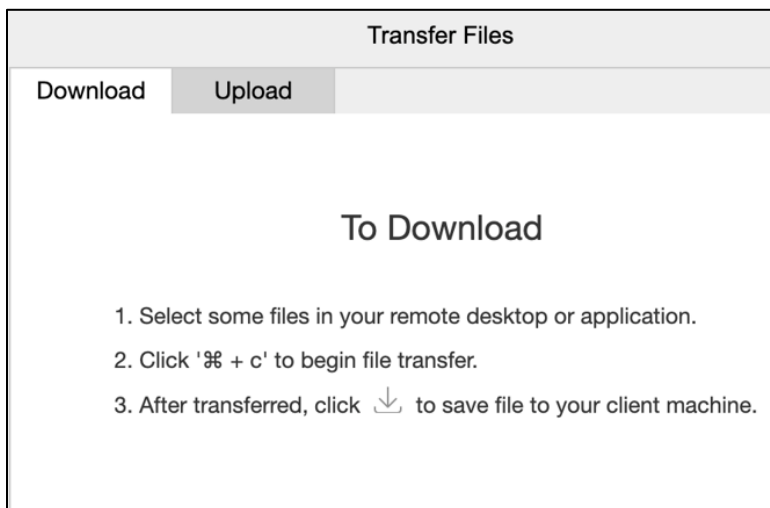

Open the VMWare menu.

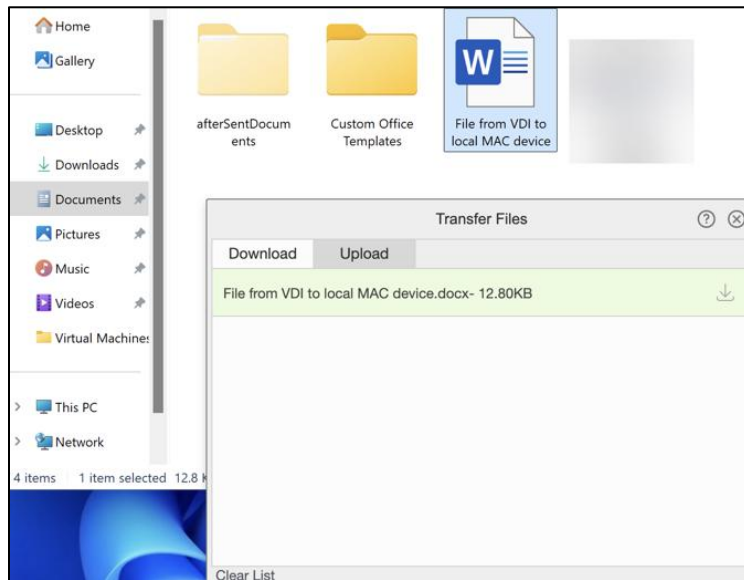

Click on the File Transfer Panel menu.

Select the Download option in the Transfer Files menu.

Locate and copy the file saved in the VDI File Explorer.

Click the Download action button within the Transfer Files menu to download the file to your device.

Review your device's file folders such as Documents and or Downloads to locate the file.